

Explanation of Terms

Admin Setup - assigning of project roles and work, and managing of translation project

Audio Editing - mixing and mastering of audio output to be used for wider distribution

Distribution - assistance in distribution of completed translation files, such as SD cards, mp3 players, online streaming etc.

Field Setup - recruitment of personnel, hardware setup, etc.

Funding - ongoing fundraising for projects, continued development of software, etc.

Hardware - devices used to run Render software, recording equipment and connectivity equipment

Initial Project Setup - loading of reference audio, implementation of audio portioning as determined by the translation organization, etc.

Permissions - acquisition of permission to use, and possibly record, reference audio

Project Coordination - translation project and audio recording coordination

Software Development - design and programming of Render software

Tech Support - escalated level of support for technical problems, specifically geared toward software related issues

Training - training provided to end users of Render and to trainers of end users

Troubleshooting - initial troubleshooting of technical problems, both hardware and software related